WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY (Amended w.e.f. 11th February, 2016)

Preface

The Company is committed to conduct its business in a fair and transparent manner by adhering to the highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behavior.

Towards this end, the Company has framed and adopted a code of conduct, which lays down the principles and standards that should be followed while pursuing the business of the Company by its directors and senior management personnel. Needless to say, it is of paramount importance that all concerned should follow the said Code of Conduct at all times. Any violation of the said Code of Conduct or any instance of actual or suspected fraud or unethical behavior would be a matter of serious concern for the Company. While the directors and employees of the Company are encouraged to voice their genuine concerns about such instances by bringing relevant facts to the attention of the competent authority, it is essential that adequate safeguards are in place to protect the identity and interests of persons voicing such concerns, and that they are not subjected to victimization for the same.

Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act), read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 mandates every listed company, companies accepting deposits from the public, and companies which have borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of Rs. 50 crore, to establish a vigil mechanism for their directors and employees to report their genuine concerns regarding the situations discussed in the forgoing paragraph, and providing for adequate safeguards against victimization of directors or employees accessing the vigil mechanism.

Further, Regulation 22 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (the Listing Regulations) also requires every listed company to establish the similar mechanism under its 'Whistle Blower Policy'.

Moreover, Schedule IV to the Act read with Section 149(8) thereof, enjoins upon the independent directors of the Company to ascertain and ensure that the Company has an adequate and functional vigil mechanism to which any concern about unethical behavior, actual or suspected frauds or violation of Company's Code of Conduct can be reported by any director or employee and to ensure that interests of such director or employee are not prejudicially affected on account of such reporting.

Accordingly, the following policy which shall be called "AHNL Whistle Blower Policy" has been formulated to meet the aforesaid requirements and shall come into force from the date of its adoption by the Board of Directors of the Company.

1. Objectives

The objective of this policy is to establish and provide a mechanism for the directors and employees of the Company to report any violation of the Company's Code of Conduct or any instance of actual or suspected fraud or unethical behavior, ensuring that such mechanism incorporates adequate safeguards against victimization of such directors or employees who avail of this mechanism.

Accordingly, this policy sets out a functional vigil mechanism to receive and investigate into any genuine concern reported by any employee or director in relation to any violation of the Company's Code of Conduct or any instance of actual or suspected fraud or unethical behavior, and after conclusion of the investigation, take requisite corrective and penal action. The policy provides for direct access to the Chairman, Audit Committee.
